

TRIPLE PLAY: GLUTEN-FREE, VEGAN & KOSHER COME TOGETHER

Health consciousness in America never stands still; people are constantly seeking out cleaner, safer, healthier options in all sorts of products. In food and beverages, many consumers are leaning toward wines that are not using any animal products or gluten. (Celiac is now to be found in 1 in 10 people according to the Celiac Disease Foundation.) Expecting gluten-free and vegan wines to become increasingly popular, Worldwide Libations, LLC is now offering wines from Tres Buhis in Spain, as well as Pavolino from Veneto, that are gluten-free, vegan and Kosher, priced from $10 to $13.99 SRP. worldwidelibations.com
