

SLIVOVITZ & ORAHOVAC: DARING DUO FROM THE ADRIATIC COAST

Slivovitz, an Eastern European tradition, is a plum brandy typically consumed neat as a digestive or as a modern cocktail ingredient. Croatian distiller Maraska has released two new products, including a new Slivovitz.

■ Maraska 10 Year Old Slivovitz is fermented then aged in 500L barrels for a minimum of 10 years, giving it roundness, a distinct aroma, and a touch of oak on the palate. 80 proof; SRP $35.

■ Maraska Orahovac Green Walnut Liqueur is a traditional liqueur unique to the Adriatic Coast. Maraska's is made from a maceration of green (unripe) walnuts, which give it a spice and more depth of flavor. Serve neat or in cocktails. 56 proof; SRP $24. worldwidelibations.com
