Pigeon River Tennessee Sour Mash, 48%

Price: $50 • Issue: Fall 2022 • Reviewer: Ted Simmons

Sweet breakfast notes of cinnamon bun, vanilla yogurt, rice pudding, and Special K with freeze-dried strawberries on the nose. With water, peanuts and vanilla bean. The palate is fruity and well-spiced, with good depth of flavor; chicory coffee, peanut butter chips, and with water, chocolate-covered peanuts. A flavorful but short finish brings hay, straw, cocoa, and spice. This shows personality and consistency, perhaps grain-forward at times but not without dimension. (3,500 bottles)
