

Seifried 2021 Pinot Noir (Nelson)

90 Points

From a pioneering family in New Zealand's Nelson region, at the top of the South Island, this takes its time opening but eventually reveals succulent plum and blueberry fruit, white spice, scrubby herbs and subtle coffee-like oak influence. The mouthfeel is tart and fresh, framed with distinctive chalk dust textured tannins. A classic regional bottling.