

Eugenio Collavini 2020 Broy (Collio)

92 Points

Glistening like a golden sunrise, this wine is a treasure trove of enticing aromas. Roasted slivered almond aromas mingle with an abundance of apple, as if freshly sliced and ready for a warm, comforting pie. The palate is an orchard of pears and apples where rich, full-bodied flavors of ripe fruit and flowers work in harmony. Roasted pork with apples would be a dream with this wine.
