

PENDERYN

DISTILLERY

Penderyn Whisky revived the lost art of whisky distilling in Wales. The first distillery, nestled at the foothills of the Brecon Beacons, was established in 2000, using fresh spring water from the village of Penderyn. The brand's unique copper pot still, designed by Dr. David Faraday, produces a high-strength spirit that's light, fruity, and flavorful. With guidance from whisky expert Dr. Jim Swan, Penderyn developed a signature cask-finishing process, gaining global acclaim and winning over 100 prestigious awards. Now available in over 50 countries, Penderyn is a pioneer in the world whisky industry.

The Red Dragon, featured on Wales' national flag, symbolizes strength and inspiration, with roots in ancient Welsh history. The Penderyn Dragon whisky range, launched in 2015, honors this powerful symbol, drawing on Wales' rich heritage and the legacy of legendary Welsh figures like Henry Tudor.
